Join Dr. Liat Ben-Moshe, Assistant Professor of Criminology, Law, and Justice at the University of Illinois at Chicago for a discussion of their forthcoming book, Decarcerating Disability: Deinstitutionalization and Prison Abolition (2020). Dr. Ben-Moshe’s research shows how disability / mad knowledges and histories, and their racial resonances, should inform analysis of the closure of carceral enclosures such as prisons, jails, psychiatric hospitals and residential institutions for those with intellectual or developmental disabilities, through the prism of abolition.
